social/emotional or multiple impairments to a degree that satisfies the criteria for financial assistance in special education services or programmes provided by the State or Territory in which the school or centre is located. If a State or Territory government does not provide a special education service or programme for a particular impairment, or the impairment is not of sufficient severity to qualify the student for a government special education service or programme, the student cannot be included as a student with a disability.

Overseas Students
Overseas students are students that hold or are included in a visa that permits the visa holder to travel to Australia for the purpose of undertaking a course provided by a body. Someone is only considered an Overseas student if they are on a visa that is specifically related to studying in Australia (or a bridging visa attached to a substantive visa with those provisions). Only students who are the primary visa holder, or the dependent of a primary visa holder that is issued for the purpose of study are classified as Overseas students.

Distance Education
A Distance Education student is a student that satisfies all the following criteria. A Distance Education student is:

- A student that attends a school that provides Distance Education and has State recognition for the provision of Distance Education or can provide evidence that the State/Territory provides funding for the school (outside the Australian Education Act 2013) for primary or secondary education for students enrolled and receiving Distance Education from the school; and
- The student resides in the State or Territory in which the school is located; and
- The student is not approved as a home education student; and
- The student is not an overseas student.

Indigenous Distance Education
Indigenous Distance Education students are student that self-identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander and are undertaking education at a Distance Education school.

Students on Visas
Students on Visas are students who hold (or are dependents of persons who hold) a permanent, bridging or temporary visa.

Indigenous Boarding Students
These are Indigenous students who attend the school and are accommodated in residential facilities which are administered by the school.

SWD Distance Education Students
A Student with a Disability Distance Education student is a student with a disability [see Student with Disability definition] undertaking education at a Distance Education school.
